

Guidelines for submitting an idea for the Breaking Barriers in Health Care contest

The contest is open to anyone who wants to share a research idea, research project, social innovation idea, practice/management approach, related to healthcare.

Submissions for the contest will be treated as standard conference submissions. In addition contestants can submit an idea for the contest in addition to their abstract submission.

Your submission for the contest should include the following:

- Title
- Summary of your idea (150 words).
Please make sure to indicate why your idea is novel, or why it challenges current thinking, or whether it provides an old solution to a new problem, or introduces a new solution to an old problem.
